

Sites with lots of fun and interesting information, activities, and games:

Drinking Water and Ground Water |

water.epa.gov/learn/kids/drinkingwater/index.cfm

This site offers games, interesting facts, and animations for grades K-12.

USGS Water Science for Schools Website | water.usgs.gov/edu

Information for upper grades includes lots of facts, figures, and technological information. Great resource!

Water Use it Wisely | wateruseitwisely.com/kids

Water saving tips, adventures, and games!

The Story of Drinking Water | drinktap.org/Kids-Place

Tip Tank | wateruseitwisely.com/tip-tank-game

Keep the tank full or your fish will go down the drain. Classic matching game with a twist.

Discover Water — The Role of Water in Our Lives | discoverwater.org

A super fun way to learn about the water cycle, saving water, and more!

Thirsty for Knowledge | epa.gov/watersense/kids

Learn about water and easy ways to save.

Thirstin will teach you about the water cycle, fun facts, and a water word scramble.

- The Water Cycle
epa.gov/safewater/kids/flash/flash_watercycle.html
- FUN FACTS! How Much Water Do We Use?
epa.gov/safewater/kids/flash/flash_matching.html
- Water Word Scramble
epa.gov/safewater/kids/flash/flash_wordscramble.html

Save Splash the Raindrop | scholastic.com/njaw/game

Take the challenge of catching raindrops.